

conference invitation

15th November 2014

Tavistock Halls
Harlesden Methodist Church
25 High Street, Harlesden, London NW10 4NE
10.30-4.30pm

Proposals for Old Oak Common, Park Royal, White City and Kensal Canalside include: 35,000 new homes and 77,000 jobs*; creation of one of the country's largest railway interchanges; creation of a 'world business centre'; expansion of Imperial College and University College London and a new Queens Park Rangers stadium.

The conference speakers include: Michael Mulhern, Greater London Authority; Christian Wolmar, transport journalist and Gerry Heward, London Waterways Commission. There will be workshops on: transport; housing; green and open spaces; waste; local employment; climate change; design, density and high-rise development and social and community infrastructure.

The conference will provide opportunities for local people to exchange views and to consider how together we might influence the plans. The event, including refreshments, is free. You will, however, need to book by phoning 07931 214 913 or emailing grandunionalliance@gmail.com Please provide your name and contact details.

Sources: *Further Alterations to the London Plan Vision for Old Oak Common and White City Opportunity Area Planning Framework