

JOB RE-ADVERTISEMENT

Advance delivers nationally accredited, quality marked services in Hammersmith & Fulham, Westminster, Kensington and Chelsea. We work within a coordinated partnership response to domestic violence to provide independent domestic violence advocacy and support for women, children and young people and women's community services for women who are involved in the criminal justice system, in anti-social behaviour or are at risk of breaking the law.

Female* Evaluation & Engagement Officer

Contract: Permanent

Salary: NJC scale 29-31 £28,191 – 29,838 per annum pro rata inc. London Weighting

Working hours: 28 hours per week according to contract terms

Work Location: Based in Advance office in Hammersmith

The postholder will work to increase and facilitate a greater service user voice in the development and service delivery of Advance services, and the wider partnership. To achieve this through a range of methods with service users, partner organisations, and frontline staff. To empower service users by strengthening their confidence and self worth of the participating service users by valuing and acting upon their feedback. To inform projects across the organisation of this feedback and support the design of new services or the adaptation of existing services in line with this feedback.

An understanding of the dynamics of domestic abuse and the experiences of women who have been through the criminal justice system are essential as well as the ability to engage with service users in group and one to one settings. An understanding of safeguarding duties, risk management and safety and support planning are also required.

Advance is committed to equality and diversity and welcomes applications from all sections of the community. The post will be subject to an enhanced DBS check and is open to women only (*Exempt under the Equality Act 2010 Schedule 9, Part 1).

Benefits include 30 days holiday pro rata and a non-contributory pension scheme.
