

2 March 2017

Hello,

I am delighted to write to you about an exciting initiative that takes place every year aimed at helping civic organisations get involved in Parliament and UK democracy.

UK Parliament Week, now in its seventh year is our annual festival that engages people from across the UK with Parliament. This year the festival is taking place between the 13 – 19 November.

We have created a free kit that will support members of your organisation to explore what UK Parliament means to them and empower them to get involved. Your event or activity can be big or small, open to the public or held privately. The kit contains activities, ideas, and all the materials you need to get involved with the festival. Find out more and register for your kit, before 30 September at ukparliamentweek.org or follow us on twitter @YourUKParl.

It is always a great pleasure to be an advocate for UK Parliament Week and see the positive difference that civic organisations can make in their communities. I look forward to hearing about the work of your organisation and wish you the best of luck with your UK Parliament Week event or activity.

Yours sincerely,

Rt Hon. John Bercow MP
Speaker of the House of Commons
