

Exceptional Chair Wanted!

Can you lead a new charity?

We are looking for a highly experienced and exceptional chair for a new charity in Hammersmith & Fulham.

- Lead a newly formed board of trustees
- Oversee the development of the organisation's key policies and procedures
- Be part of a dedicated team
- Provide strategic leadership to the organisation's staff

The Sands End Arts and Community Centre is a new charity and looking for trustees to help run the organisation and the community centre.

As a trustee you will meet at least four times per year.

For more information and to download a new trustee recruitment pack and application form, please visit www.lbhf.gov.uk/seaccrecruitment

Deadline for applications: Monday 10 September • Interviews: 20 and 21 September