

National Careers Service London in partnership with Chelsea Foundation are hosting:

Careers & Learning Event

Our Careers & Learning Event, taking place at Stamford Bridge on Tuesday 2 July, will bring jobseekers, community groups, training providers and employers together for a great day of career and learning opportunities. Attendees can find out about job vacancies and volunteering opportunities, enrol on courses, take part in free careers seminars/workshops and meet over 30 organisations & training providers including:

- EasyJet
- British Transport Police
- Capital City College Training
- Greggs
- Reception Academy
- Royal British Legion
- The Chef Academy of London
- Tideway

National Careers Service Advisers will be available for free 1:1 confidential and impartial careers advice, offering support with:

- assessing your skills
- finding opportunities to acquire additional qualifications
- discovering the right job for you
- sourcing funding for learning
- improving your interview techniques
- developing your CV

We would be most grateful if you could share the enclosed leaflets with your customers, clients or visitors who may benefit from attending the Careers & Learning Event.

The event is free to attend but we ask that attendees register for our own records. You can register for free on Eventbrite at www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/careers-learning-event-tickets-61634677981 or on arrival at the event.
