3. To help the Chief Executive to achieve the Sobus's mission:
 - 3.1. To provide support to and line manage the Chief Executive on behalf of the Board.
 - 3.2. To be responsible for ensuring that the Board focuses on its governance role and does not slip incrementally into the management role, i.e. the Board holds the management accountable for Sobus's work and is not tempted into doing the manager's jobs. However, to balance this with ensuring that there are agreed arrangements in place to enable the staff team, via the CEO, to take advantage of the individual expertise held by Trustees, as appropriate.
 - 3.3. In partnership with the Chief Executive to check that the right items reach Board meeting agenda by asking whether the item is a fundamental issue for Sobus; whether it has policy implications and whether it is a priority for Board time.
 - 3.4. In partnership with the Chief Executive to ensure that the Board receives sufficient (neither excessive quantities nor too little) and timely information to make informed decisions.
 - 3.5. To hold the Chief Executive responsible for the quality of the Board papers.
 - 3.6. To ensure that there are regular one-to-one meetings with the Chief Executive when the Chair and Chief Executive can talk openly, discuss progress and problems, agree expectations of each other; plan the Board's annual programme together and prepare for meetings together. There should be no 'surprises' between Chair and Chief Executive at Board meetings.
 - 3.7. To ensure that the Chief Executive has effective communication systems in place between her / him and their staff, as well as that they have in place appropriate training and development systems for staff.
 - 3.8. To ensure that the Chief Executive's performance is reviewed informally at regular one-to-one meetings throughout the year and more formally annually.
