

Hammersmith & Fulham Arts Festival 2020 pop-up festival

From Monday 24th August we have an exciting free programme of virtual arts workshops for people of all ages.
Our talented workshop leaders are all highly established artists.

Join us for a range of workshops in visual art, creative making, writing for performance, street dance, storytelling ...

To name but a few:

The Bush Theatre

The famous West London theatre will lead three workshops exploring a range of creative activities, focusing on developing your own writing style and turning it into a performance. No experience needed, just bring some paper and a pen.

J. King

This acclaimed young black artist will set you on the road to creating a portrait!

Jane Churchill

Jane, a highly experienced theatre set designer, will make paper butterflies and show you how to display them in your very own natural history museum!

Scariofunk Collective

The dance collective will get you active with street dance and Zumba sessions suitable for all!

Lydia Gandaa

Creative Lydia will bring a daily family art and craft activity suitable for younger children using materials around the house.

Kate Corkery

Award-winning storyteller Kate will show you how to tell a story. No writing required.

Just a few things to know...

These are all one-hour workshops

No materials necessary - just materials you have around the house

Laptop/phone/tablet and internet connection are required to take part

Workshops have limited places so sign up now!

Sign up directly on our website or through Eventbrite

We hope you enjoy our festival and look forward to seeing you virtually!
