

Dementia Action Week

17 - 23 May 2021

VIRTUAL DEMENTIA HUB

Monday 17 May

2.30pm | Ravenscourt Park

Poetrees - launch of major visual project in 5 local H&F parks (Hammersmith, Bishop's Park, South Park and Wormholt Park) with splendid displays on trees of the words which have been crowdsourced from social media and H&F community groups.

The crowdsourced words will be used in a poem about dementia awareness we have commissioned from the poet, Dan Simpson.

Tuesday 18 May

Anytime

Turtle Key Arts, partnered with the Royal College of Music and the English Touring Opera will share their latest Turtle Song Roadshow musical composition project with people with dementia and their carers. (link to be supplied by TK)

Tuesday 18 May

Anytime

Nubian Life has agreed to share their Nubian Oracle video recording of 'Anansi and The Yam Hills'. (link to be supplied by NL)

Wednesday 19 May

West London | 11.00am | Zoom

Sing Along hosted by Alzheimer's Society

link to be supplied by AS

20 May Thursday

11.00am | Zoom

Legal issues when Planning Ahead-Stuart Downey, private practice solicitor and Chair of HFDA will provide a legal education session about decision making around capacity and making wills (link to be provided by SD)

Thursday 20 May

1.30pm | In-person

Dementia Friend session at Fulham Palace

Friday 21 May

1.30pm | National Gallery

Creative and practical artist-led Zoom workshop-16 places

<https://www.nationalgallery.org.uk/learning/community-and-access> Create Eventbrite link

Friday 21 May

4:30pm | Imperial College School of Medicine and Westminster School of Architecture design project.

Live panel discussion with Q&A about the importance of language and engaging students in the positive image of dementia - open to all (creatEventbrite link)

link to come to digital exhibit

21 May Friday

5:00 - 8:00pm | In-person

Street Party with music organised by For Brian, CIC, Old Oak, W12

missing Dancewest

For further information, please call H&F Dementia Action Alliance on 0777 5784520